

North District XC Relays Bught Park Inverness 11 October 2025

Love is... Cross Country Racing

Nothing says romance quite like mud, windburn, and the faint aroma of Deep Heat. Back on the trails and at my happiest — well, technically a playing field on the banks of Loch Ness, but you get the point.

Today's adventure took us to Inverness for the North District Cross Country Relay Championships (incorporating the Masters Champs). It was absolutely chucking it down  when we left home, but by some miracle the sun made a grand appearance  — clearly even the weather gods couldn't resist a bit of XC action.

New venue this year, Facilities — top notch!

Route — we have a soft spot for Nairn.

Competitors — as ever, warm, welcoming, and super friendly.

We survived, we smiled, we sprint-finished into a headwind. What's not to love?
